Christmas Eve Services

One of the highlights of each year at First Baptist Church Statesboro is Christmas Eve. We will gather for two worship services that will focus our hearts and minds on the birth of Christ, and these services are wonderful opportunities to gather with family, friends, and guests.

Our Family Nativity Service begins at 4:00pm and features a live nativity scene acted out by our fourth graders. The service is geared toward children with videos, laughter, and squirming little ones, so celebrate this time with your family and kids of all ages. The service will conclude with all of us lighting candles together.

The Candlelight Communion services begins at 6:00pm with an extended musical prelude beginning at 5:30pm, which you don't want to miss. We will observe the Lord's Supper during this service and also conclude with a candle-lighting moment.

Is there a person or family in your life that you need to invite to one of our Christmas Eve services?

On a regular basis, I learn that our Christmas Eve services are the first time someone ever attended First Baptist Church Statesboro. That reminds me that Christmas Eve is a wonderful "invite opportunity" for your neighbors, coworkers, and friends. Is there someone in your circle of personal relationships not engaged in a local church? Might the Lord be wanting you to invite those friends as your guests to one of our Christmas Eve services?

I look forward to seeing you, your family, and your invited guests as we worship Jesus this Christmas Eve.

A Personal Word

When Cynthia and I moved to Statesboro nearly 20 years ago, we had no idea of the love, grace, and relationships we would find in this community. Over the years, you have impacted our lives in so many ways, and you have walked with us across hilltops of joy and through valleys of sorrow. Your unwavering love, care, and support have been such a blessing to us. From our family to yours, we wish you the very best and a Merry Christmas.
