National Day of Prayer

Please consider being a part of one of these events centered around the National Day of Prayer this Thursday, May 1:

- Courthouse Prayer Gathering. At 12:00pm Thursday, a 45-minute prayer service will be held on the lawn of the Bulloch County Courthouse. Each year, there are representatives from churches across our community, and I invite you to link hearts and hands with these fellow believers to pray for our country, churches, schools, and community. This year's event will be the 25th consecutive year of gathering at the Bulloch County Courthouse for the National Day of Prayer, so I hope you can join us that day.
- Public Reading of God's Word. Also at the courthouse this Wednesday through Friday is the "Public Reading of God's Word," where community members read the entire New Testament aloud, chapter by chapter. Even if you are not an assigned reader, listening to God's Word read aloud in a public venue is a powerful experience. Additionally, people will be taking a "Jericho Walk" around the courthouse building for a time of prayer walking for our community leaders.

Spring Missions Offering

Our annual Spring Missions Offering supports work being done here in Georgia and across North America. The monies you provide will be divided evenly as follows:

Half of the gifts you provide will be sent through the North American Mission Board to support the starting of new churches in some of the most unreached cities across our nation. Many urban and major metropolitan areas have very few Bible-believing churches, so your gifts will fuel the church planting efforts across North America.

The other half of your gifts will support the five ministry areas supported through the GBMB's Mission Georgia: foster care and adoption, maternity care, refugees and internationals, sex trafficking victims, and childhood literacy. Give generously through our Spring Missions Offering, knowing that you are making a difference here in Georgia and across North America.

SPECIAL GUEST: RICHARD BLACKABY

Our guest speaker for our Young at Heart luncheon on May 13 is Richard Blackaby, president of Blackaby Ministries International. Our older adults sponsor this luncheon, but anyone is welcome to attend. Lunch is $10 per person.
